MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

RE PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS PURSUANT TO ORDERS FOR INTERIM COSTS AND EXPENSES

Refer to file

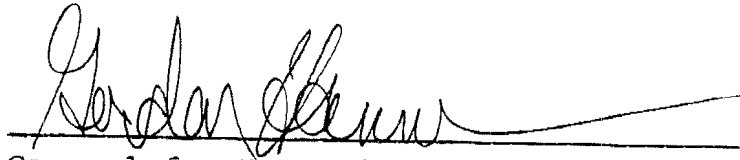

Feb 20 1986

The Parties by their counsel agree that regarding Payment of Accounts Pursuant to Orders for Interim Costs and Expenses, it is intended that all accounts submitted pursuant to orders for interim costs and expenses should be dealt with as follows:

1. Prior to submission to the respondents, the claimants shall acknowledge in writing that they have reviewed the accounts and that they approve the accounts for payment.
2. Each respondent shall pay their respective portions of legal accounts within sixty days of receipt of said accounts unless a respondent objects to an account or requests further information.
3. The respondents have the right to make such enquiries as they deem necessary in reviewing a legal account. Information with regard to accounts shall be provided by counsel to the claimants unless an objection is raised.
4. In the event of any dispute with respect to the above a reference may be made to the Arbitrator.
